Introduction of Visitors – Questions and Comments

(In order for the Board to fulfill its obligation to complete the planned agenda in an effective and efficient manner, a maximum of thirty minutes of public participation is scheduled. A district resident who wishes to address the Board must inform the Superintendent at least one week prior to a regularly scheduled or adjourned meeting of the Board and provide both name and the specific item(s) to be presented to the Board. The Superintendent will have the resident's name placed on the agenda. No presentation shall exceed five minutes on a topic of discussion. If multiple speakers indicate a desire to speak on the same issue, the presiding officer shall relate the board's desire that the speakers designate two people to speak for the group. The board asks the audience to refrain from responding to the speaker's comments, including cheering and applauding, so that all board members can focus their attention entirely on the speaker. Although the Board may ask clarifying questions, please be reminded that the Board cannot respond directly to any comments made this evening.)

Shannon Burton handed out packets to all of the Board Members.

Mrs. Miles discussed the following items: The winners of the Elk's essay contest, Elijah Fierbaugh, Raechelle Miles, and Ariona Furbay were recognized; Chase Orr won the spelling bee and will be competing at regionals; the practice PARCC tests went well; SADD and TI from the high school will be in the building monthly; and, the valentine's party and parent teacher conferences are coming up.

Mr. Golec discussed the following items: He explained that teachers nominate individuals for student of the month and the recipient is selected through a drawing; the student of the month then receives lunch with the principal and assistant principal at Pizza Hut; the high school is preparing for testing and he feels that the practice tests went very well.

Mr. Watkins discussed the following items: Claudia Birch won the spelling bee for a 3rd year in a row; the winners of the Elk's essay contest, Lexy Roberts (8), Sarah Sidoti (8), and Maria Small (7) were recognized; he thanked Beth Lint and Jeff Lambert, district technology staff, for their assistance with technology related to the required tests; and, the Washington D.C. trip is at the end of March.

Additions and/or Corrections to the Agenda – The addendum was accepted as presented and Item 11 was corrected to reflect the dates of February 27-28, 2015.

Items to be pulled and voted upon separately – None

Cafeteria & Transportation Update – Mrs. Peterman discussed the following items: The cafeteria is getting ready for a review by ODE in April; and, Mill Township officials notified the District that we are no longer permitted to clear roads and this situation puts the District in a bind and will effect what we can do when there is snow.

Buildings & Grounds Update – Mr. Armstrong discussed the following items: A water softener was installed at the Junior High due to the hard water conditions; key card installation will begin this week; and, the fence at Eastport is working well.

Special Education/Preschool/Gifted Update – Mrs. Neininger discussed the following items: The Preschool will have a licensing visit by ODE; 3 other districts have contacted her wanting to visit the Preschool; there were 10 re-evals in January and 12 in February; alternate assessment training is now complete; PACTS review will be in the next 2 months; she handed out a copy of the gifted newsletter for review; the new gifted report cards are a concern; training for ELL staff will be offered; Brandie Fox received CPI (MANDT) training; and, discussed the number of 504 plans currently in place.

Curriculum Update – Mr. Page discussed the following items: 3rd grade OAAs will be given in the spring instead of the PARCC assessment; the math committee will meet on February 12th; Title I after school tutoring will begin March 9th for grades 3-8; Title I Neglected tutoring will begin February 9th for High School students; OTELA tests have been completed and returned; grades 3-12 have been practicing the PARCC assessments; parent-teacher conferences are February 19th; curriculum council will meet on February 18th; and, alternative assessments begin February 23rd.

CEA Update – Mrs. O'Connor discussed the following items: She attended the alternate assessment training; teachers are working hard to get ready for testing but there is still anxiety; and, she asked about calamity make-up days.

Buckeye Career Center Report – Mrs. Host reported that Mr. Piccetti from Indian Valley LSD is the Board President and she is the Vice-President. The Career Center has 50 more applicants this year than last and Project Lead The Way will be offered next year.
