Director of Operations Report – As presented. Mrs. Lint also reported that the District is transitioning to a new all-call system ran through the OneView system to provide options for email and text. Mr. Shamel asked if a high school student does not want to take home their chromebook each night, will there be somewhere to leave them at school. Ms. Conn responded that chromebooks will be assigned like a textbook and will be the student's responsibility; they can be left in the student's locker with a lock on it, but no place in a classroom. Mr. Abbuhl asked about the orange stuff on the high school gym floor. Mrs. Lint responded that it is washable paint used to paint the volleyball lines. The paint is coming off on the volleyballs and players. She is assessing the situation.

Curriculum Report – Mrs. Miles discussed the following: Fifty-two teachers attended one of two weeks of training at the ECOESC with Deb Kennedy during the summer; new staff orientation is scheduled for August 13th from 8a-3p. She also reported the volleyball meet the team and spaghetti dinner is Thursday, August 15th.

Special Education & Preschool Report – None.

Cafeteria & Transportation Report – Ms. Burlison reported the District qualified for the Community Eligibility Provision again this year, so we will continue providing breakfast and lunch to every student at no cost; will be preparing breakfast again for opening day. Mr. Fawcett asked if bottle water was available to students for lunch. Ms. Burlison responded students have to take a milk per the program, but water is available with a doctor's note. Mr. Fawcett also asked if students bring their own lunch, do they have to buy a milk or if it is free. Ms. Burlison responded that milk is not free if a tray is not taken because it is not a reimbursable meal. Mrs. Peterman reported that she has been working on setting bus routes and getting them loaded into OneView. Mr. Abbuhl asked if she had received any more substitute drivers and she said she has two new ones.

Principal's Reports – Ms. Conn (High School) discussed the following: Gearing up to welcome teachers and students back to school; she thanked the teachers for attending training this summer; she also thanked the custodians for a phenomenal job of preparing the building for a new school year; the Building Leadership Team will be having an all-day retreat at the ECOESC.

Mr. Watkins (Middle School) discussed the following: complimented and thanked Randy, T.C., Steve, and the paint crew for their hard work preparing the school, it looks great; 6th grade camp is scheduled for October 7th-9th; he did an all-call to parents about completing the online forms.

Mrs. DiDonato (Intermediate) discussed the following: Thanked the custodians for their hard work, especially stripping the entire cafeteria floor; getting ready to start the new school year.

Mr. Page (Elementary) discussed the following – Building looks fantastic; teachers worked great together at the training; welcome back letters mailed to all students/parents; August 21st – Cook-out/Meet the teachers, August 27th – 2nd grade orientation, August 28th – 3rd grade orientation for reading guarantee.

Buckeye Career Center – As presented.
